

Assault and Violence

- Send someone for help from the Principal's Office or any other close-by employee
- Do not touch a violent student or attempt to break up a fight alone
- Shout "STOP" in a firm voice and advise students that the police are on their way
- Maintain verbal contact encouraging students to desist
- Remove all other non-involved students from the immediate area
- Try to guide involved students to a more isolated or secure area until they can be separated and calmed
- Do not leave students alone until they have been calmed and other responsible parties are present
- Remove involved students to the Principal's office or School resource Officer's station

Assault and Violence